Wilson Hall, Beckwith's dining hall, is getting a facelift!

Wilson Hall is one of the most important facilities on the Beckwith campus for all of its events providing campers and retreat guests with a place to eat, meet and build community and relationships. Wilson Hall is home to around 900 youth each summer and an average of 6,000 adults on retreat each year. Annually, over 30,000 meals are prepared and served from the kitchen in Wilson Hall. We are thrilled about our Impact 100 grant funding for this renovation project.

Beckwith is...

Beckwith is a beautiful retreat, a place for refreshment & renewal, a place apart for experiencing God's presence without the distractions of daily life - a sacred space! - Judy Dye, St. Mark's Troy

Beckwith is the glue which holds our diocese together and brings us together to pray, work and learn. Dick Hooper, Christ Church Pensacola

Beckwith is a spiritual sanctuary enjoyed by so many in our diocese, our parishes and our community: from youth splashing around for summer camp, to parish retreats, to clergy conferences, to Cursillo weekends, to community or company gatherings. Our Episcopal camp we call Camp Beckwith, is truly a blessing for us all! - Scott Thompson, St. James' Fairhope
